

Can you sort these sentences into two paragraphs?
Your Subheadings are habitat and appearance.

A thick layer of feathers and fat keep the penguin warm.
--

Emperor penguins live in Antarctica.
--------------------------------------

They have webbed feet.
------------------------

They huddle together to keep warm.
------------------------------------

Emperor penguins have small but strong wings.
---

They can grow to about 130 cm tall.
-------------------------------------

It is very cold
-----------------

Penguins live in a group called a colony.
---

Task 2

Can you find out any more facts about penguins?

Write them down.

Which paragraph should you put your new facts?

Do you need a new subheading?