Dear Parents and Carers

We are pleased to be able to let you know that Otter class will be visiting a workshop at the Bath Children's Literature Festival on Thursday, 29th September. The workshop is called "Meet the Worst Class in the World with Joanna Nadin and Rikin Parekh", and should be a lot of fun as well as inspiring the children's enjoyment of reading.

We will be leaving school promptly at 12:15pm, having eaten lunch early at school. The visit will be for the afternoon only and we will be back at school for normal pick up time. Your child will just need to bring a coat and a water bottle to school, as normal.

We have booked workshops in the same week for Dragonfly and Kingfisher too. This has meant that the workshop prices are reduced, though we do still need to pay for the coach. The trip will cost £9.42 per child.

We really appreciate your making the trip possible through a voluntary contribution. To do this, and/or to give consent for the trip, can you please log in to Parentpay.

Please complete the Parentpay process by Monday, 19th September so we can confirm we have enough voluntary payments to go ahead. Unfortunately, if we do not receive enough contributions, the trip will have to be cancelled.

There is also an opportunity for you to buy the author's book for your child. Please see details overleaf. If you would like to order a book, please use the separate Parent Pay item to do so.

Yours faithfully

Warrick Barton
(Headteacher)

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Bath Children's Literature Festival 2022

I am thrilled to let you know that your school are supporting Bath Children's Literature Festival. Your child will be visiting the Guildhall on Thursday 29^h September for an event with Joanna Nadin and Rikin Parekh.

Are you ready to meet Class 4B, THE WORST CLASS IN THE WORLD?! Join Joanna and Rikin, creators of the number one best-selling series, as they introduce Stanley Bradshaw, his best friend Manjit Morris and the rest of CLASS 4B, along with their long-suffering teacher Mr Nidgett! Joanna and Rikin will talk about the real-life people and places that inspire them and they'll give you some tips on where you can get writing and illustration ideas from. In a fun-filled whole-audience activity, Joanna will demonstrate the team work involved in making a book and Rikin will invite everyone to join in with a draw-along. LAUGH-OUT-LOUD FUN is 'LITERALLY' GUARANTEED in this event!

Bath Children's Literature Festival is all about children's books. It's for children and people who love to read. It is also a fantastic opportunity to give those reluctant readers an inspirational experience with one of this year's authors and all children will leave with a time to remember and will hopefully feel encouraged to read and write more.

At the end of each event there will be an opportunity to buy the author's book and get it signed. Below is a list of titles by the author that will be available after the event, including their newest book which is highlighted. If you would like to purchase a copy or copies of any of the below, please Mr. Miller on DOJO by THURSDAY 15 SEPTEMBER.

Author	Title/ISBN	RRP	Number of copies
Joanna Nadin	The Worst Class in the World Goes Wild! 9781526633538	£5.99
Joanna Nadin	The Worst Class in the World 9781526611833	£5.99
Joanna Nadin	The Worst Class in the World Gets Worse 9781526611888	£5.99
Joanna Nadin	The Worst Class in the World Dares You! 9781526633514	£5.99

I hope your child has a wonderful time at this year's events and thank you for supporting our fantastic festival.

Best wishes,

Hazel Plowman
