

The Reading Ambassador

Newsletter

Hello everyone!

We would like to introduce ourselves! We are the Reading Ambassadors for Pensford Primary School. Please meet Isabel, Phoebe, Max, Ellis, Natalia, Eddie, Poppy, Rose, Emma, Harry, Molly, Emily, and Harvey.

Part of the job of the Reading Ambassadors is to encourage others in our school to read. We will try to inspire reading through:

- designing reading challenges for the holidays;
- sharing book reviews and recommendations with other children;
- completing library audits to find out what books, genres, dictionaries and thesauruses are needed to support reading.

All the year groups enjoyed attending the Bath Literature festival. Ducklings were able to visit KenWilson-Cox, an illustrator for one of their favorite books Aqua Man. Dragonfly met The Boy Who Painted the World, Otter saw Magic and Dragons and Kingfisher explored The Letter with The Golden Stamp.

We are so lucky to have such inspiring children who wanted to share their love of reading with others.

TERM 1

Coming up...

- Next month is Non-fiction November!
- The winners of the 500 words competition will be announced.
- Our next books reviews will be going on the website after half term!

What we have been working on...

- We have all been working on our Bookflix displays for the classrooms. They each have hot reads suitable for the ages in that classroom.
- We have been running a reading club for the little ones every Friday. We have been reading to children in Reception, Year 1 and 2.
- We have all received our official Reading ambassador badges!
